

“Our Father Who Art In Heaven”

Extract from Tony Harriman’s Blog: “What’s It All About?”

Take a brief look around our world and you will quickly recognize that the earth is filled with individuals who want to feel accepted, wanted and loved. Quite often those of us with these needs gravitate toward some type of religion as we search for purpose and meaning in our lives. Those of us who choose Christianity quickly find ourselves worshipping the Creator, instead of the creature. We learn of a God Who so loved us that He gave His only Son that we should not perish in our sins, but that we should live eternally. Quickly we find meaning for our lives as we seek ways to share that eternal truth with those with whom we share the planet.

As we engage in the Christian life, we learn more about the Bible. We learn bigger words, bigger themes. We learn that God, in the Person of Jesus, created the vast cosmos that goes on without end. We learn Biblical history with its forms and ceremonies. We learn of a Plan of Salvation as illustrated in the Hebrew Sanctuary constructed in the wilderness. Some of us go on to spend countless hours and days and weeks and months and years nourishing our minds with Godly Names and spellings and Heavenly tools as offered to our intellects in that same wilderness Sanctuary.

Perhaps of all the themes in the Hebrew Bible, none are as interesting as the many Names and Titles belonging to the King of the Universe. “Lord” and “God” are perhaps the most commonly used, but these are titles that could actually be used for the deity of just about all religions on the planet.

After listening to Jesus pray on one occasion, a disciple came to Him and asked that He teach them all to pray. The response of Jesus speaks volumes. “When you pray,” He said, “Say, Our Father which art in Heaven....” He didn’t say that they should offer their petitions to: “The Almighty God,” or to “The Creator,” or to “Jehovah,” or to “I Am,” or to any other title we might use for the Deity. He simply said we should speak to “Our Father.” And if you take the time to read again the Gospels in this light, you will find that this is exactly how Jesus Himself addressed His Father. Time and time again Jesus used the words, “My Father,” “My Father,” “My Father.” And likewise, “Your Father,” “Your Father,” “Your Father.” An exception to the rule appears to have been at the Cross: “My God, My God, why hast Thou forsaken Me?” (Matthew 27:46). Though it’s unclear if Jesus is quoting the Book of Psalms (Psalms 22:1), or if the Book of Psalms is quoting Jesus.

Jesus invited us to refer to our Father in just that manner: “Our Father.” We are not encouraged to use any language that would cause a distance between us and our Father in Heaven. He may be in Heaven, but He is still our Father and He would like to be known to us as our “Father.” He cares for us as a Father such as we have never known on the earth.

The term “Our Father” has a completely different Spirit about it, don’t you think? “Our Father” has a much more personal meaning, like the Person we are addressing had, and has, a whole lot more to do with my life, knows who I am and where I am.

Make no mistake, though. Our Father is The Creator. He is the Sovereign of the universe. He is the Great I Am. He is The Redeemer. His is the only Name under Heaven whereby we must be saved. He is the Alpha and Omega. He is the God Who sent His only begotten Son. He is the only One Who lives beyond time and space and everything we have an instrument to measure. His is the still, small Voice. He is these and so much more. But more than anything else ....

He is our Father, and we are His children.

Spring will soon be here—a new beginning. Fresh opportunities await us as the world in the northern hemisphere begins again. Remember we have some excellent books as you make your plans for evangelism. The children of the world are desperate to hear a voice telling them that they matter, that there really is Someone Who cares, that the world is not going to continue as it has. They are waiting to hear from you.
