

Finding Peace In Cuba Back again ... by God's good grace

We've just returned from Cuba having delivered another 25,000 copies of our Spanish version of "Finding Peace Within" (Steps to Christ) and 25,000 Spanish tracts "A Love Letter from Jesus." You'll remember that just before Christmas of last year (2017) we delivered 68,000 books and tracts to five Church delegations from one end of Cuba to the other.

Out of a population of almost 12 million, 33,000 are members of the Seventh-day Adventist Church. Most Church congregations meet in converted homes, or in the family rooms of occupied homes. Relatively few congregations meet in what we might think of as a church building. The Church in Cuba is not presently allowed to build new churches, but they are allowed to renovate old ones, and to convert existing homes for church use. There are SDA Church congregations (mostly small ones) from one end of Cuba to the other, and the members are generally active in their local neighborhoods. Their biggest need? Evangelistic tools. This need we have attempted to meet ... because we can. And with your help ... we will.

To date we have delivered almost 100,000 books and 100,000 tracts to this, the largest island in the Caribbean. For now the window remains open to us. Will things improve? Possibly. When? We don't know. Quite honestly, things could get worse before they get better.

Things are changing in Cuba, most notably the Constitution. Some social freedoms are being introduced, albeit slowly, but many restrictions remain.

On our recent journey we took many humanitarian supplies, only two suitcases-full, but supplies that made a difference. We took about 30 pairs of eyeglasses, half of which were distributed within a half-hour of opening the cases. We took toothbrushes, toothpaste, soap, shampoo, toilet seats (unbelievably), hand tools, etc., etc. For many people in Cuba these simple things remain out of reach.

Occasionally people ask us, "Why do you keep asking for money to print books? Shouldn't you make enough from selling them?" Well, the truth is, no, we don't make money from the books we sell. In fact, we give away far more books than we could ever sell. Your gifts and prayers make possible all the work we have ever reported to you. And by God's good grace we will keep on reporting to you that your gifts continue to do a good work. Thank you from all of us here in our humble ministry, and thank you from the Cuban people, for your gifts, your prayers, and your words of encouragement.

Keep it up!
