

Nearer, Still Nearer ... Looking forward to a haven of rest

WE'D LIKE TO REPORT TO YOU AT THE END of this troubled year that we've reached every dusty corner of our weary world with the Good News of Christ's return. But we haven't.

We'd like to tell you that we've placed a truth-filled book in every address throughout the sprawling Americas. But we haven't.

We'd like to tell you we've mailed publications to every home in North America. But we haven't.

We're sure you'd join with us in lamenting the many things you haven't done during this past year. But that would really be a fruitless exercise. Unless you had a very definite plan to fill in all the blanks left over from the last twelve months, it would perhaps be a waste of time to spend your days crying over the milk you never had the chance to spill. Instead, maybe take some time out of your busy schedule to reflect on what you did manage to accomplish.

Perhaps your way has been weary, filled with trouble and heartache. Maybe you've suffered unanticipated losses. It's likely that many times you felt very much alone. But you've remained faithful, you've stuck to it; you embarked on a voyage with Christ, and you are determined to endure the passage — even if you do get a little wet and seasick from time to time.

In the midst of all your cares and concerns, remember this: we are near the final port. Apart from the eternal crown and the promise of the Spirit in our lives, we are guaranteed nothing but trouble in this world — trouble dotted with occasional bright spots. Though you may feel at times as if you're trudging through deep, wet snow, never lose sight of the assurance that the world awaiting us is filled with unimaginable bright spots dotted with ... occasional brighter spots, if that's even possible.

Around our office we are constantly planning for projects we'd like to breathe life into; but many of those projects don't always respond to our wishes. It would be easy to spend our days worrying over what hasn't been done. But we don't. What we do instead is praise God for what does get done at our hand, and by His Spirit. God never ceases to amaze us.

We're not sure how many tons of books go out of our doors to lands near and far; all we know is that the loading area is always covered up with boxes of books, and the mail trays, loaded with Community Mailing packages, are refilled constantly. And you can rest in the assurance that, even though you may not have applied the stamp, your gifts of support keep our wheels of progress turning. Thank you!
