

Still a Good Deal ...

And a very effective form of silent evangelism ...

FOR MANY YEARS THE WORK OF NEIGHBORHOOD evangelism has been conducted by people like you through the use of our Community Mailing Program. Every month we mail out thousands of pieces of literature to zip codes and mailing routes of your choosing.

The process is simple: you call us or send an email and tell us where you'd like to mail books; Lary Petty will contact the Post Office and find out numbers—how many people in that zip? How many people on that route? Lary will contact you, then you and he will agree on a number of books to mail; Lary will tell you what the project will cost; you pay the bill, we do the work. Easy.

Just recently we handled a Mailing for a customer who wanted us to include a card inviting recipients to enroll in a Bible study course. The response to the card has been tremendous; at last count, 150 people had signed up for the course.

If you'd like for us to manage a neighborhood Community Mailing for you, call Lary Petty @ (205) 646-2941 for details on how as little as $200 can go a long way on the evangelistic battlefield. You won't be sorry.

HUGS ALL AROUND

Those of you who watch the national news will likely in the last couple of months have been introduced to Elizabeth (Betty) Laird: The Fort Hood, Texas Hug Lady. Betty had been a faithful supporter of our ministry, and a stealthy evangelist for the Kingdom until her recent passing.

No soldier, young, old and everything in between went out on Betty's watch without a hug. When the soldiers returned, Betty was there to greet them—whatever the time and whatever the weather.

Just recently we received a call that went like this:

"I was one who had received hugs and books from Elizabeth Laird. One day Elizabeth and I got into a discussion about events happening in the world. She told me she had some DVDs she thought I would enjoy. I watched them and was very interested in the things Pastor Charles Wheeling had to say. I couldn't believe gas would sell for less than one dollar a gallon ... but Pastor Charles said, 'When that happens, WATCH OUT!' I feel the messages Charles preached were from God. I had a neighbor across the street who I shared some of the info with, and let her watch the DVDs. She agreed with me that this pastor was from God. We ended up getting married." 'Nuff said.
