

No More Ponies In the Stables, But ... Traveling the same roads, the message continues

THOSE OF YOU WHO KNOW A LITTLE ABOUT HOW THE natural systems of the world work, might remember that seeds from one side of the planet can very often start a whole new forest on the other side. It was apparently Russian immigrants who brought to the American prairies the first seeds of the great tumbleweeds. And here they remain today as a testimony that life on our world goes where it wants to. Sometimes we help; sometimes ... not so much.

Each month we send out of our doors thousands of copies of seed-filled literature. And not just out the doors; some of the seed we sow is freely available from our website, scattering life worldwide on a regular basis. Here is a handful of figures to help you see where our Community Mailing program has gone recently.

Our USA Community Mailing program has become extremely popular among those trying to get the most from their donation dollar. Why? Because in the current economic climate the mail system has returned to what it started out as: a great way for the country to communicate with itself. Sure, there's email and the phone; but there's nothing quite like the privacy of curling up beside the fire with a good book. And because of the same economic restraints, people around the country are doing just that.

The mail carrier still has an address for everyone who has a mailbox or PO box, and for now they still go out six days a week. For well over a hundred years the United States Postal Service has kept the country paying its bills; wishing itself a Happy Birthday; bearing good news ... and sometimes not. In many ways the USPS has kept the wheels of American commerce turning. From an armchair in Hartford, Connecticut a man by the name of Mark Twain could write a novel about a young boy named Huck Finn, send this novel around the country and affect the hearts of millions of readers. Now, that's power. What!? never leave your front door, but change the course of history? Can that even be possible? Apparently. And you can do the same. Never underestimate the power of your influence; it doesn't take much to turn the ship's rudder.

Pony Express Rider's Oath

"I, _____ do hereby swear, before the great and living God, that during my engagement, and while I am an employee of Russel, Majors and Waddell, I will, under no circumstances, use profane language, that I will drink no intoxicating liquors, that I will not quarrel or fight with any other employee of the firm, and that in every respect I will conduct myself honestly, be faithful to my duties, and so direct all my acts as to win the confidence of my employers, so help me God."

Long gone are the ponies that gave the USPS its start, but the spirit remains. The need and desire for communication is a God-given trait of the human family. And the strange power an idea has over the mind is a phenomenon that ought to be exploited for good much more than it is. Call Lary Petty today (205-646-2941) and ask what you can do for your country.
